

The heat was on at Willow Lakes Golf Course the 17th & 18th as 90 plus golfers took part in the 2010 Willow Lakes Open. Staying hydrated proved to be as much of a challenge to the players as shooting a competitive score on the only Robert Trent Jones Sr. designed championship course in Nebraska.

The 2010 Open champion was Jayson Brueggemann. He defeated retired Deputy, 55th Force Support Squadron, Murray Krambeer in a two hole sudden death playoff as both players were tied at the end of regulation play on Sunday.

There were also winners in three handicapped flights. Mr. William Ward took the honors in first flight as he shot an impressive 67 on the par 72 course. "It was an honor to keep his scorecard as well as a pleasure to see a good friend play a great round of golf" said retired MSgt Lee Johnson who was tied with Mr. Ward going into Sunday's final round and came in second. Second flight was won by retired MSgt Steven Fennel and third flight was won by Mr. Ken Rowan.
